Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 24 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Drier, brighter Wednesday, but generally cloudy with rain in places.

Today:
Sunny spells developing in north, but showers over northwest in morning and near coasts. Cloudier in south, but rain becoming confined to the Borders in morning, before further rain pushes into southern and central Scotland in afternoon. Strong southwest winds.

Tonight:
Rain over central and southern Scotland clearing in evening, then dry with clear spells, but showers in west later. Clear spells in north but cloudier later in west with showers.

Thursday:
Bright or sunny spells. Mainly dry in east, but cloudier in north and west with showers, these rather prolonged and occasionally heavy in the morning. Fresh to strong westerly winds.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy start Friday, with rain or drizzle, but drier and brighter in afternoon. Some rain overnight and early Saturday, but again drier, brighter by afternoon. Bright or sunny spells Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.